The American Film Institute (AFI)

The following is a complete list of the American Film Institute's 100 greatest American movies as selected by a blue-ribbon panel of more than 1,500 leaders from across the American film community. Panelists chose from a list of 400 nominated movies compiled by the AFI. The nominated movies were all feature-length fiction films produced during the first 100 years of American cinema (1896-1996). The American Film Institute salutes these films and the artists who created them.

AFI is the preeminent national organization dedicated to advancing and preserving the art of film, television and other forms of the moving image. For more information about AFI, visit the website at <www.afionline.org>, or for membership information call 1(800) 774-4AFI.
