

The American Film Institute (AFI)

This is a list of the American Film Institute's 50 greatest American actors and actresses as selected by a blue-ribbon panel of more than 1,500 leaders from across the American film community. Panelists chose from a list of 400 nominated individuals compiled by the AFI. The nominated actors and actresses in films produced during the first 100 years of American cinema (1896-1996). The American Film Institute salutes these artists who created them.

AFI is the preeminent national organization dedicated to advancing and preserving the art of film, television and other forms of the moving image.
