

Thanks for the Memories.

Bob Hope

"I don't mind losing, but I hate to go home and explain to my kids how the actors I've been sneering at all year beat me out." (1967 Oscars)

The Big Broadcast of 1938	Video 5177
Road to Morocco	Video 6127
Five Women I Love: Bob Hope's Vietnam Story	DS557 A6 H6 (Newman Stacks)
I Never Left Home	D811.5 H7 1944a (Special Collections)
The Road to Hollywood: My 40 Year Love Affair With the Movies	PN2287 H63 A325 (Storage)

"They tell me he was so crooked that when he died they had to screw him into the ground."
— from "The Cat and the Canary" (1939)

"You still have your hourglass figure, my dear, but most of the sand has gone to the bottom."
— from "The Lemon Drop Kid" (1950)

Hope on Bing Crosby: "I don't dally much with riff-raff these days, and he's a pretty raffish kind of riff."
— from "The Road to Morocco" (1942)

May 29, 1903 - July 27, 2003

