

Confederate Imprints 1861-1865

Microfilm JK9665 C65

Principal collection of primary source materials from the Confederacy, both official and private publications, includes more than 6,000 books, government publications, pamphlets, broadsides, maps, pieces of sheet music, and pictures, published in Confederate-held territory between the state's secession and a local surrender. Does not include periodicals, printed forms, nor currency or similar materials. Contact: Bruce Pencek (bpencek@vt.edu).

Items in Confederate Imprints are individually cataloged in Addison; call numbers indicate reel and number. The finding aid is organized into two major sections: official imprints, which are arranged into Confederate States documents and then those of individual states; and unofficial ones, which are arranged topically.

Finding aid: Confederate Imprints: A Bibliography of Southern Publications from Secession to Surrender. Ref room Z1242.5 P37 1984.

Subject headings:

- American literature -- Southern States -- Bibliography.

American Periodical Series III: Civil War and Reconstruction Series [1850-1900]

Microfilm Z6951 A498

The 117 periodicals reproduced in this collection are primary sources in the philosophical, social, and literary background of the Civil War and Reconstruction eras. The periodicals in these collections are individually cataloged in Addison. Finding aid indexes these works by periodical title, periodical subject (by Addison/Library of Congress subject heading), editor, and reel number. Part of the larger American Periodical Series microfilm set; the others cover periodicals published 1741-1800 and 1800-50. Contact: Anita Haney (aihaney@vt.edu).
