

University Libraries, Virginia Tech

Library Instruction Follow-up Interview Questions

What do you remember about the library session?

When you had the chance to use some of the databases, Web sites, or other resources you learned about in the library sessions, what problems did you encounter?

What were some of the problems you encountered along the way with the research process or with finding information?

How did you deal with the problems you encountered?

Does anything about finding information for your assignment or project for this class still perplex you?

If you were helping someone else (or if you were teaching a class) doing a similar project, what three things would you tell them so they could do it well?

Would you be willing to follow up with us next semester?